Mamie,

During the time that I've known you, you have seemed to be a very nice, intellectual, admirable and intelligent young lady. Even though we had an run-in at the start back on the track by friendship. (I hope!)

Just think! Next year we will be Juniors. How long have I waited for that day, now it's here, I just can't believe it. (Maybe we will have some classes together next year. We are lucky.)

I'll be always,

Freda

Remember the I

Remember the E

Put them together and remember me!

Be young, be foolish, but be happy.

Mamie

Be young, be foolish, but be happy!
Best of luck, because we have really been a "riot"
this year

Dedication

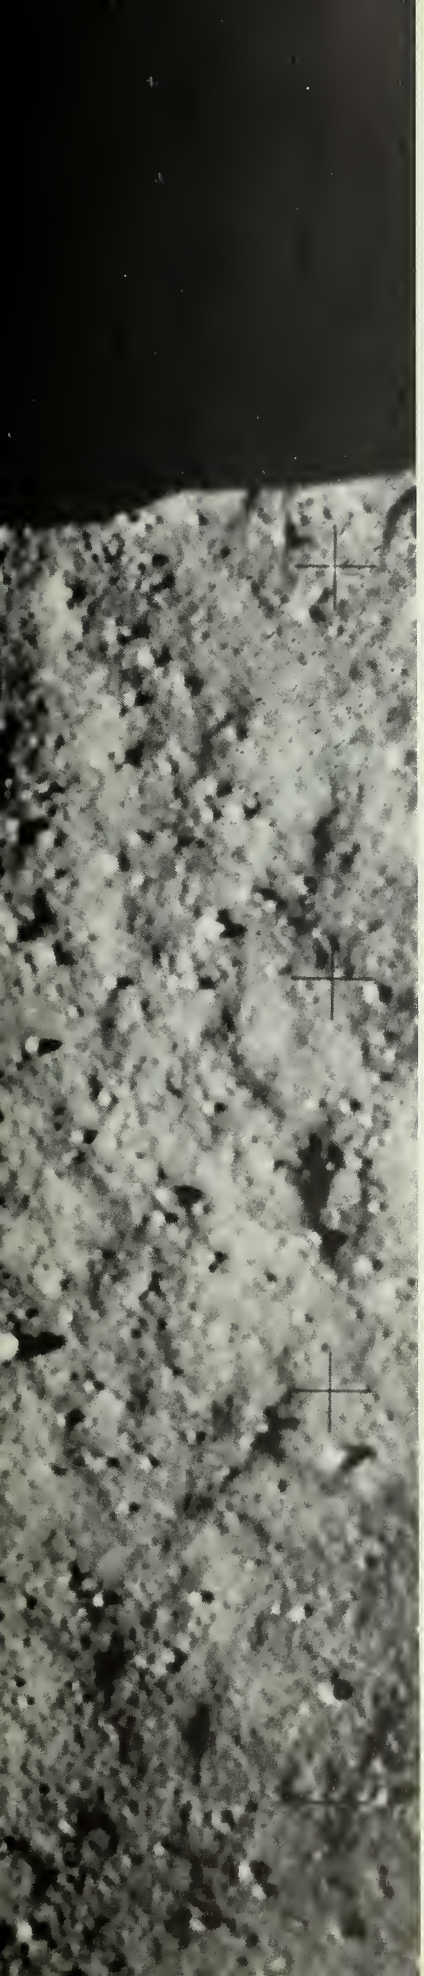
The year 1969-1970 was an important one for J. H. Rose High School because it marked the beginning of its consolidation with C. M. Eppes High. There were, naturally, conflicts and compromises, problems, and satisfactory solutions. However, everyone involved knew that the actual success or failure of the merger hinged on the attitudes of the student body.

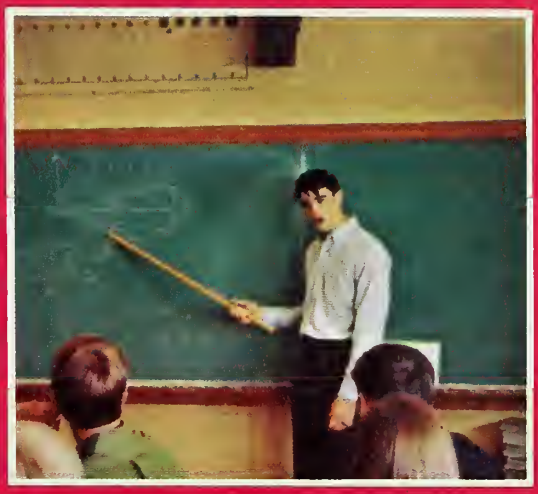
Co-operating individually and collectively, the students strove to prove that blacks and whites can co-exist in peace and progress. Because of your sincere concern and active deliberation, the 1970 VISA is dedicated to you, the student body of Rose High School.



". . . The EAGLE has landed . . ." These words, spoken by the Apollo XI astronauts, Aldrin, Armstrong, and Collins, climaxed the American space odyssey initiated seven years ago by John F. Kennedy. With the historic landing on the moon, the doors were opened to unlimited galactic exploration.

Like the astronauts, we, the students of J. H. Rose High, are explorers. We, too, are unsure of our footing as we prepare to take that "giant leap" into the adult world. Our responsibilities have formerly been assumed by teachers and parents — our "Mission Control." Now the load is shifted to our shoulders. As young adults, we must plot our own courses, make our own mistakes, and use the acquired knowledge to achieve our ultimate goals.

Today's Active Youth . . .



. . . Are Preparing for Their Adult Futures

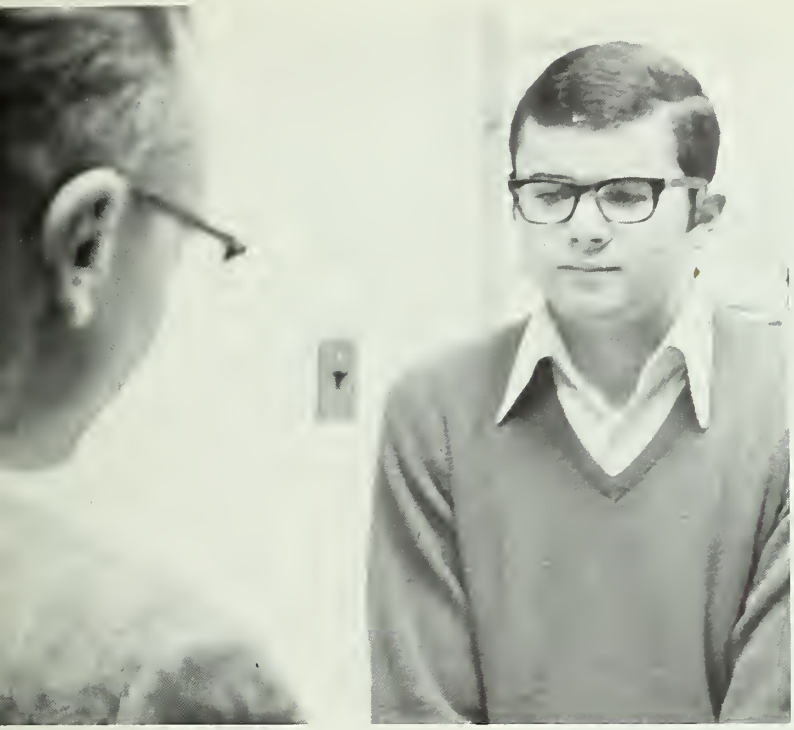
Who's Who

Frank Trent Hill

Trent Hill has proven himself successful in both scholastics and athletics. He is an active member of N. H. S., and was selected as a marshal last year. He has played basketball for four years and football for one. Trent also excels in golf, and has been a golf team member for four years. Trent is in the Monogram Club, and assists the school as a member of the student athletic committee. Because he is an excellent student and a dependable worker, Trent has built a fine reputation for himself in high school.

Greta Rita White

Greta has been musically minded throughout high school, and she has displayed her talent by playing in the band for four years. She is also in the Woodwind Quintet and a member of the Community Choir of Greenville. Greta was in both F. B. L. A. and the Typing Club last year. She was an active member of the debating team, serving as its business manager. A member of both the French Circle and Spanish Club, Greta also participates in F. T. A. To make her involvement in school activities complete, Greta is a member of N. H. S. and Crown and Scepter. Her greatest interest is music, but it is evident that Greta is successful in everything she does.



Eric Albert Vernon

A born leader, Eric has spent countless hours this year serving as president of the student body, and his understanding and rapport with all students have truly eased tension at Rose High School. He has served on the Student Involvement Committee and was Treasurer of the S. C. A. Along with participating in baseball and tennis, Eric is presently co-captain of the swimming team. To complete his versatility, Eric has won the French IV award and is an active member of N. H. S. With Eric around, Rose High has never been a dull school!

Susan Grace Stocks

One of the most outgoing young ladies at Rose High, Suzy makes everone around her a friend. Known for her beauty, Suzy was chosen a princess her freshman year. She was a spirited cheerleader for two years, and has been active in the Pep Club throughout high school. She enjoys music and has been in chorus for four years. Suzy's most outstanding achievement was her selection as Community Ambassador to Denmark. She was an excellent choice, and made many Danish friends for the United States as a goodwill ambassador. It has been a pleasure for those at Rose High to have had such a remarkable girl in their midst.

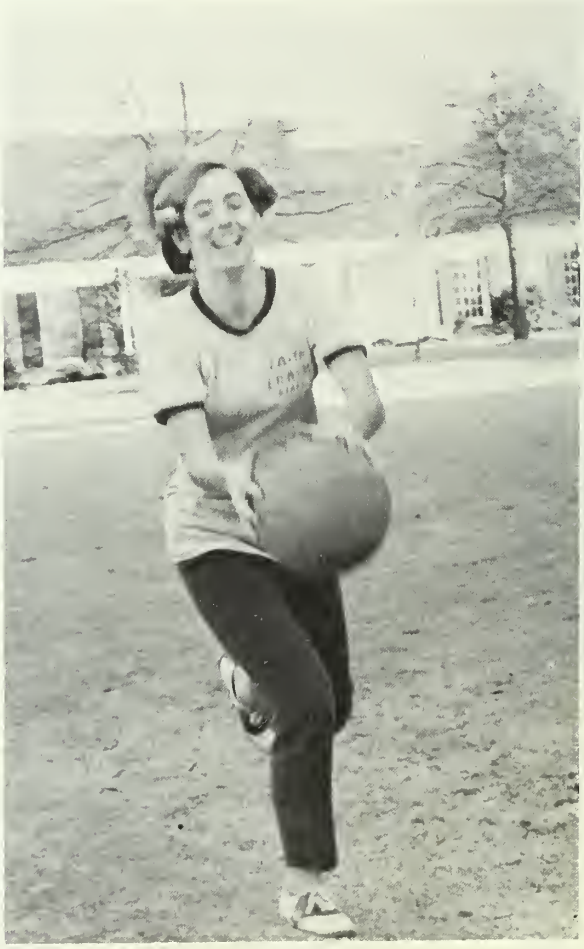
Independent minds . . .

Karen Jean Colvard

During high school, Karen has been honored for her outstanding artistic talent. She has won the Gold Key Award, Honorable Mention in the N. C. Arts festival, the Rose High Art award, and has entered numerous art exhibits. Currently she is serving as president of the Art Club. Karen excels in other school activities along with art. She has been on both the newspaper and annual staffs, is vice-president of Quill and Scroll, and was a marshal her junior year. To climax her successful high school years, Karen has won a four year scholarship to Bennington College, Bennington, Vermont.

Katherine Hawes King

Kaki King is the girl with the big smile and ready giggle around Rose High, and though she seems so happy-go-lucky, Kaki is a dependable and serious-minded girl. Besides her many school activities, Kaki worked as a counselor at Camp Leach last summer. She has been a cheerleader for three years and is now serving on the S. C. A. Executive Council. She has assisted the annual staff for two years as Junior editor and Co-features editor, and Kaki is a member of N. H. S. and Quill and Scroll. Kaki now heads the Episcopal Young Churchmen as president, and last year she was secretary. She was a marshal and secretary of Girls' Intramurals. All of Kaki's involvements speak for themselves. She will certainly be a success in the future.



Joseph Hunter

A versatile young man, Joseph Hunter has proven himself in all facets of high school life. He served as chief marshal his junior year, and won the Geometry and English III awards. Joe is also a member of Crown and Sceptor and N. H. S. Excelling in sports as well as academics, Joe has competed on the football, basketball, baseball, and track teams. He was honored for throwing the discus in the Junior Olympics held in Nashville, Tennessee. Joe has been a valuable member of the Student Involvement Committee, and was elected to serve on the S. C. A. Executive Council. Joseph is a strong contender for a National Merit Scholarship, and he certainly has a promising future.

. . . win recognition for . . .

Pamela Ann Carter

A very ingenious student whom others look up to, Pam indeed has originality. Her creativity was displayed when she participated in planning the '69 Jr-Sr. She has also performed an outstanding job as head varsity cheerleader. Pam has contributed much time and effort to the annual for the past three years as a Sophomore editor, Co-activities editor, and this year's Co-features editor. Along with being a marshal, Pam belongs to both the N. H. S. and Quill and Scroll, and she served on the Student Involvement Committee. She was also a nominee for the Katherine Smith Reynolds Scholarship at UNC-G. Pam has made many contributions to her school, and she has had a distinguished high school career.

Katrina Anne Jolly

Katrina Jolly is a talented girl. She is remarkable in that she has the ability to use her time well, dividing it between her hobbies and her school activities. She attended Governor's School last summer, and has become a National Merit Semi-finalist. Co-editor of the Visa this year, Katrina was business manager of the annual last year. She is in the N. H. S., Quill and Scroll, and is a marshal. Katrina is active in F. H. A., French Circle, Teen Dems, and she is president of F. T. A. Katrina enjoys sports, too. She was on the Varsity Girls' Basketball team in Ayden, and enthusiastically supported Girls' Intramurals. Katrina has given countless hours to her school, and has had an outstanding high school career.

Ernest Raeford Carroway

Ernest has indeed proven himself to be an exceptional student throughout high school. He attended Boys' State, and has been nominated for a Morehead Scholarship. Ranking number one in the senior class, he is also a member of Quill and Scroll, vice-president of the N. H. S., and a marshal. An avid sports fan, Ernest has served as a basketball scorekeeper for two years. He played J. V. basketball, and has been a football player for three years. During his junior and senior years, Ernest displayed his journalistic ability as sports editor of the newspaper. Ernest has been distinguished as a strong, well-rounded student.

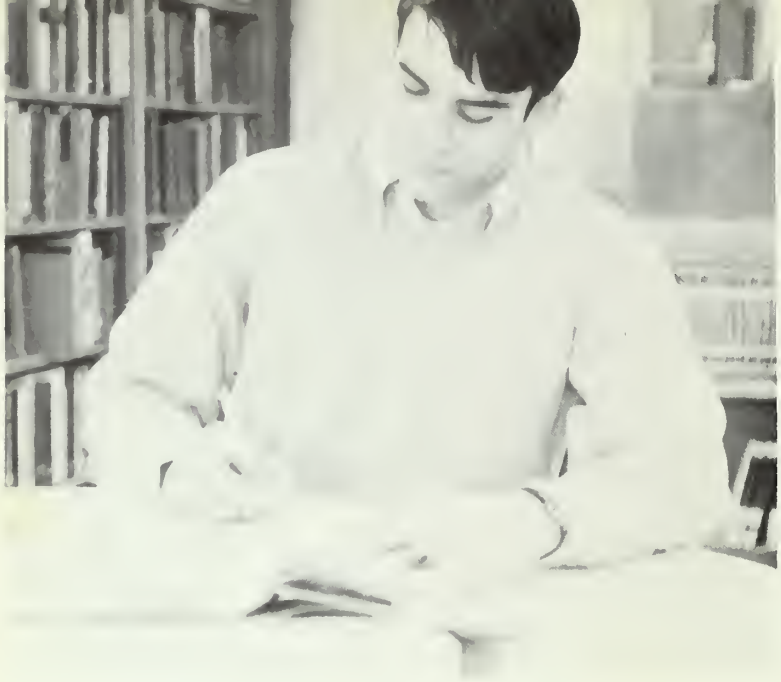
Elizabeth Taye Price

Elizabeth Price is a responsible young woman. Throughout her high school years, she has worked after school and on weekends, and yet she has been completely involved in school activities. She was elected president and first negative speaker of the Debate Club, and was chosen a marshal. A member of S. C. A. for four years, Elizabeth has served it as treasurer and secretary, and was a member of the Student Involvement Committee. Her work as Senior Class Co-editor of the Visa, and membership in Crown and Sceptor, N. H. S., and Quill and Scroll, show that Elizabeth is a very well-rounded and excellent student.

. . . scholarship . . .

Clifton Hugh Edwards

Clifton Edwards has probably been best-known in high school for his physical prowess, and yet Clifton has excelled in many other ways. He is a member of N. H. S. and was elected to the S. C. A. Executive Council. Clifton is a two-year football letterman, and a three-year letterman in track, especially proving himself in running and pole-vaulting. This year Clifton was chosen "Most Improved" member of the football team, and he pilots the Monogram Club as president. It is evident, because of his brilliant high school record, that Clifton will be a success in the future.



Thomas Wesley Durham

Tommy Durham is a sharp young man, both mentally and physically. He has maintained number one class rank through four years of high school, and has won both the French I and Chemistry awards. Serving as president of N. H. S., Tommy is also a National Merit Semi-finalist. He enjoys sports, and excels in them. He was co-captain of the baseball team and wrestled for two years. Tommy deserves every honor he has received, and with his strong character, he will surely succeed in the years to come.

. . . creativity . . .

Cindy Ann Worsley

Cindy has a variety of interests and she excels in all of them. She really enjoys gymnastics, and founded the Rose High Gymnastics Club. Cindy is well-known for her knitting, and she has won several contests, the most important being the National Knitting Contest for Teens. She worked as a counselor at Camp Seafarer and has been a medalist with the Raynez swimming team for six years. In addition to Cindy's hobbies, she is outstanding in school activities. She is a page editor for the Rampant Lines, and is secretary of N.H.S. Cindy is secretary of F.T.A. and was chosen a marshal. By all of her achievements, Cindy has certainly proven herself to be a remarkable student.

Theodore Gray

Popcorn

Active in student government, Theodore Gray has been a leader throughout high school. He has been a homeroom president for three years, and was president of the Junior Class. Theodore worked toward the Rose-Eppes consolidation on the Student Involvement Committee, and was chosen vice-president of the student body by his fellow members on the S. C. A. Executive Council. "Popcorn," as Theodore is called by his friends, was a band member for two years and played J. V. basketball. He is a member of Crown and Sceptor and N. H. S. Last year, Theodore captured the English III award and served as a marshal. His desire to work for a better school makes Theodore a really deserving member of Who's Who.

Margaret Kathryn Sencindiver

Meg Sencindiver is a lover of fine arts, and she is especially outstanding in music and writing. Meg is a member of the Birodanjles and is a devoted chorus member. She has published poetry in The Rebel and American Poetry Press. Her essays have been published in National Essay Press. Meg's winning essays captured the top two places for the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and she won the Freedom of Speech Award published by Poetry Press. This past summer, Meg attended Girls' State, and currently she is president of the French Circle. She is a member of N. H. S. and has captured the French III and Speech and Drama awards. Meg has truly been a source of pride for her school, and she will surely continue her winning ways.

Homecoming 1969-70

The year 1969-70 has been a year of change at Rose High School, and the students explored new ways to celebrate an old festivity - Homecoming. With "Around the World" as its theme, the parade, complete with princesses, sponsors, cheerleaders, and bands, kicked off the Homecoming celebration. During halftime of the game against the Kinston Red Devils, the sponsors and princesses were presented to the crowd. The highlight of the ceremony was the crowning of Bonnie Hahn as Homecoming Queen. A lively dance topped a successful Homecoming Weekend.

I think this song is in the key of J ... Where did he say to start? - I don't know, I'm making up my own starting point ... He's cut us out of this tune until we don't even play ... Have you ever seen Mr. Rogers fall off his stand? ... How can you march 8 to 5 with only two feet? ... Half-time was the first time I ever did that routine ... If we have to play "Gallant Men" for a parade once more, I'll scream ... 5-6-7- HIT IT! ... Harry Lee Moore - the drum major??

Choral Ensemble

The officers of the Ensemble are Vice-president, Suzy Stocks; President, Jonnie Cassick; Secretary, Meg Sencindiver.

How are we supposed to learn this Latin song? I can't even read it! ... I'm going to write the words on my hand for the concert ... The whole tenor section's voices are changing ... Billy brought his bathrobe instead of his chorus robe! ... I can't believe it - Cathy actually showed up for class today! ... Oh no, I've got the hiccups ...

Chorus II

Chorus I

National Honor Society

Don't spread it around, but this election was rigged ... Did you watch "The Three Stooges" last night? ... What a gyp! I was looking forward to playing with those little candles ... Have you seen my cheat sheet? ... Meet me at the party after the meeting ... I'm going to steal Dean's car when he's not looking ... Where's Meg? ... Break out the booze and let's have a party!

I still think we should have named it the Southeastern Bat Book ... Fred hasn't taken the pictures yet and our section is due tomorrow! ... We've lost $400 - can they stick us with it if we go in the hole? ... Are you sure this annual room isn't really a closet? - Get your elbow out of my eye! ... How do you do a layout without any pictures? ... He forgot to put film in the camera ... We're going to get killed for some of these captions ... I hereby disclaim any responsibility for the construction of this document ...

Rampant Lines

CO-EDITORS: Billy Armistead and Vickie Morgan

Deyonne and Laura can't figure out where to put the State Bank ad this month ... Dot said we couldn't use the cartoon about Uncle Glenn ... What's plagiarism? ... Contrary to popular belief, Cindy Worsley is not a Campfire Girl ... Rampant Lines? - Who wanted that name, anyway? ... Let the stupid juniors write the Rose Tattoo ... Today Cheryl's column is due and Cheryl is sick ... Susan Holt is a Saran Wrap fanatic ... And now here's the man to whom the news wouldn't be the news without the news - Heeeere's Billy!

Plagued by crippling injuries and bad luck, the Rampants were unable to achieve the berth they had hoped for in their first year of 4-A competition. Their performance, when represented as a win-loss record, does not begin to reflect the individual determination and team effort of the players.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS
Thomas Bland

Our birth is but a sleep and a forgetting:
The soul that rises with us,
our life's star,
Hath had elsewhere its
setting,
And cometh from afar;
Not in entire forgetfulness,
And not in utter nakedness,
But trailing clouds of glory
do we come
From God, who is our home:
Heaven lies about us in our infancy!
Shades of the prison-house
begin to close
Upon the growing boy,
But he beholds the light, and
whence it flows,
He sees it in his joy . . .

Hello
Marnie,

We haven't known each other long, we only got to learn each other this year. And I can say it has been a pleasure to know you. We have lots of fun; especially in home-make, where we just talk, Talk, & talk. I hope we continue to have as much fun as we had. It's been a pleasure for me to know you and be your friend. Freda, told you 'Be young, be foolish, but be happy, and this is true. Have you fun while you can, and take life as it comes. We only have one life to live, so let's be successful at this one. Much happiness to you & yours & Lewis.

From the Cockpit

Contrary to popular belief, a yearbook does not materialize out of thin air. The staff members contributed much time, talent, and energy to make this publication a success. However, without the assistance of the merchants of Greenville, the faculty of Rose High, and particularly the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, this yearbook could not have been possible

To the editors, the 1970 VISA is composed of much more than paper and print. On every page there are memories that will endure long after the faces in the pictures are forgotten, memories that are quite different from the usual recollections of friends and school activities.

Memories of:

Meetings . . . rough drafts . . . layouts . . . margins . . . copy . . . headlines . . . sorting pictures . . . "2 to 1" ratios . . . cropping . . . bleeding . . . gutters . . . proportions . . . double-page spreads . . . triplicates . . . "hunt and peck" typing . . . deadlines . . . inexperience . . . double exposures . . . salesmanship . . . headaches . . . admit slips . . . make-up tests . . . misplaced money . . . insufficient funds . . . decisions . . . insomnia . . . deadlines . . . packaging . . . shipping records . . . conventions . . . VISA!

We, the editors, have tried to capture the exuberance and adventurous spirit of the 1969-70 year of discovery. Consequently, this yearbook has been an attempt to chronicle a student's journey through the school year, from liftoff to graduation, the "moon landing." We sincerely hope that the 1970 VISA has fulfilled Billy Armistead's prophecy that "this year's annual will be a different kind of document."

Bit
I can remember when we first met in our freshman year. Shae wasn't here & us were here but it's been a good time, especially in Home Ec. with that old tidy Mrs. Allen, and in French class with Mrs. White. It's been a delight knowing you and you're a very friendly person and your smile and personality will carry you a long way. I wish you much success and happiness in the years to come.

Good Luck

Marnie,

You are a very nice friend and I hope that our relationship continues to prosper. You have a magnetic personality and great sense of humor which will always keep you a host of great friends. You are crazy!! But it's nice, because you are nice, and it is really a good thing. Maybe I can understand you because I am sort of that way (not crazy, just fun-loving). Continue to stay sweet and never change, or I will be greatly disappointed. I will never forget the great times we have had together and I hope you remember me whenever you think of having fun.

Hi Mamie?

It had been nice knowing you this year. You seem to be a very nice and friendly person to me. If you continue this way you will make you a very good wife, nice, classy and educated person. You really have a good time in personality, looks, & manners. Keep it up and I hope you will continue your education and make more space for you'll (very) nice girl, sweet, kind, when you want to be.

Hi Marie
I hope you'll stay this way forever, and not the way you were two years ago. but we'll still be the best of friends no matter what happens.
One day we'll get together just you and me and make up the wrong we both did. until that day I hope you have lots of luck and success in the near future
